

SCHOLARSHIP FOR EX-SERVICE MEN

Discharged War Veterans Given Educational Advantage.

NIGHT SCHOOL AT "Y"

Large Number of Students Enroll in Business Classes.

Free scholarships for discharged soldiers, sailors and marines will be made possible by funds available from the National War Work council according to information received by the educational department of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday.

Although the amount of money to be used for this purpose is not known local authorities believe that it will be sufficient to assist a large number of former service men to go back in schools and colleges this year.

Applications at Y. M. C. A.

Applications should be made at the Y next week by all men interested in obtaining one of the scholarships. In case there are more applicants than can be taken care of, then candidates for a scholarship will receive the various phases of training in the business men before selected a scholarship.

Large numbers of students are expected to take advantage of the eight classes offered at the Y. M. C. A. this winter. A course in "The psychology of business" conducted by Carl C. Magee, local attorney and man, is one of the most interesting courses to be offered, and will include various phases of salesmanship and advertising. Mr. Magee has consented to take charge of his work in spite of his own busy business responsibilities. He has extensive practical business experience which qualifies him for the work.

Courses in Oil

Courses in oil refining and oil geology are being worked out by experts in these lines and will be made to conform closely to the needs of this particular locality. Men high up in local concerns are working in the preparation.

A thorough course in economics will be offered and business letter writing will be taught. It now seems likely that a course in orchestral music will be presented in co-operation with Kendall college, though this has not yet been definitely settled. The educational department of the Y aims to offer enough instruction as will consist in the best possible and will present the courses at reasonable cost. The object of the schools is not to make money but to offer an opportunity for ambitious young men to better themselves. The department is supervised by a committee of business men who are interested in young men and boys and the work of the Y. M. C. A.

Drill Oil Wells

We have the chance lease on which there is practical certainty that there is production. We will contract for the drilling at the following attractive terms:

You place $2,500 in the bank and we will drill a well. If we get a paying oil well this money is ours, if dry we return your money. If the first well is a paying well you put up $2,500 more and we will drill a second well. If this well is a dry well you will pay us a third $2,500 fund and we will drill the third well. If dry we pay and if the money comes to us.

At the conclusion of this operation we will assign you a three-quarter interest in the lease and we retain the other quarter and pay one-fourth of all future drilling and operating expenses. At any time you desire to sell you are to drill one or more wells and we will assign to you our three-quarter interest. Shallow drilling Bartlesville sand north and east of Tulsa, from 18 to 36 feet of sand. Everything in the hands of perfectly competent and experienced men.

If you want an interest in a real property here is your opportunity. See or write Oklahoma State Development Association, basement of Concourse Building, Tulsa, Okla.—Advt.

High wages and general prosperity means little to the man who has been stricken with tuberculosis unless you are willing to share your prosperity with him by buying a few Red Cross Christmas Seals.—Advt.

Nothing to Do at All Till Tomorrow Applies to Hawkins

MANHATTAN, Kan., Dec. 13.— Floyd Hawkins, a senior in the industrial journalism department of the Kansas state agricultural college, has the reputation of being the busiest student in college. He has a different job for every day in the week. He is "on" Sunday, delivering two sermons at the Baptist church at Wamego; "off" on Monday when he is an instructor in journalism; "Captain" on Tuesday when he is regularly employed commanding the K. O. T. C. corps; "Mr." on Wednesday when he devotes all day to his classes; "President" on Thursday when he presides over the meetings of the Kansas state collegian board, the students' council, and the "pop" committee, each of which he is the head; on Saturday when he is merely "Floyd," taking orders from the better half, as the busy student explained it. Hawkins also is president of the college Y. M. C. A. and of the Sigma Delta Chi honorary journalism fraternity.

Wife of Publisher of The Employer Dies After Long Illness.

Word was received in Tulsa yesterday of the death Saturday morning in Oklahoma City of Mrs. Harry V. Kahle, after an illness of several months.

Mrs. Kahle was the wife of the secretary of the State Employers association and publisher of The Employer, official organ of the association, which is now published in Tulsa.

On account of Mrs. Kahle's death, the office of The Employer will be closed Tuesday, when funeral services will be held in Oklahoma City.

Train Hits Auto—Three Die.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 14.

Three men were killed and a fourth was severely injured in 11:29 this morning when a fast passenger train hit an automobile at a crossing in Bentwood, nine miles southwest of Little Rock. The dead are James C. Lake, mining contractor; the Bauxite mines; John Green, an employee at the mines; and Sgt. Maj. Carl Myatt, Arkansas, S. C., who was on furlough from Camp Pike. Jack Rich, chauffeur, who was driving the car, is in a hospital where it is said that he may recover. The presence of storm captains on the car is said to have prevented the driver from seeing the train.

Cool Laden Vessels Aground.

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass., Dec. 14.—The shipping board steamers Northwind, Lake Crystal and Fairfield were aground today as a result of the heavy fog that hung over Vineyard Sound late yesterday and until this morning. A strong northeasterly wind, which was increasing in force tonight, caused concern for the vessels. All are coal laden and are thought to be bound from Norfolk to Boston.

STUDENT NURSES FINISH TRAINING

Five Oklahoma Hospital Nurses to Receive Diplomas.

Graduating exercises for five nurses of the Oklahoma hospital training school will be held at the Boston avenue M. E. church at 8 o'clock Tuesday night. Mabel E. House, Ruth E. Haase, Alice V. Miller, Anna Hidamia, A. L. Grady and Ruth Harkins Gamble have completed their training and will receive their diplomas at that time.

ASK HIGHER TEACHERS' PAY

River View Patron's Association Advoates Immediate Raise.

The River View school patron teachers association will hold its annual auditorium Friday night. Dr. L. S. Harton spoke of the responsibility of the teachers in the Tulsa city schools and of the need of close co-operation between the teacher, the pupil and the parent. He ended with a plea for better salaries to be paid to the teachers of Tulsa.

Judge M. A. Breckinridge then told of the good work that he has observed here during his visit.

He also spoke of the small salaries being paid to the teachers and urged that they be remedied.

The River View school patron teachers association went on record resolving that the teachers of the Tulsa schools receive an increased salary. This increase is to take effect immediately.

Before Doctor Harton's talk the pupils of the school gave a very interesting program as follows:

Song, third A grade, Miss Smith; piano solo, Leslie Norwell; Indian club calisthenics, seventh A grade, Miss eagle; reading, Lois Kahn; rhythm work, one H. grade, Miss Jones and Miss James.

Be Your Own Self-Starter—

People are just like automobiles!

Everything must have a start to get any place. Old style automobiles have to be cranked to get a start. New ones have self-starters. They furnish their own power.

It's the same way with people!

The old style man depends on his friends or relatives for his start or trusts to luck. The new style man is a self-starter. He furnishes his own power by saving his money. When there comes a chance to go into business or make a good investment he has the start and if his friends wish they can give him a "push" that will send him flying on his way to success.

Don't you want to be your own self-starter?

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS

Services for James Mann, Tulsa Bread Company Foreman, Held.

Funeral services of James Mann of 916 West Park street, age 24, who died after an appendicitis operation at a local hospital Thursday night, were held at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the Stanley and McNamee chapel. Burial was in Rose Hill cemetery. Rev. P. J. Conkwright pastor of the First Baptist church officiated. Mr. Mann was a member of the church.

Mr. Mann had been a resident of Tulsa for three years. He is survived by his wife and two sons, Howard, age 10, and George, age 8. His mother and eight sisters are in Scotland and another sister in Pittsburgh. Mr. Mann was employed as a foreman at the Tulsa bread company.

The Business and Professional Woman's club of Tulsa held its regular fortnightly dinner at the Y. M. C. A. Friday night. The speakers at the dinner were Judge H. L. Standeven of the Exchange Trust company and C. E. Buchner, president of the Tulsa club.

Judge Standeven congratulated the club on its ideals and told the club that the business woman had become a necessity in the world today. Not only in the commercial does the woman have an important part to play, according to the speaker but in the political world as well.

"You have all of the powers of men both at home, in business, at the ballot and everywhere," he said, reminding his hearers that they were now a full-fledged citizen.

This country has problems to solve and meet once too. But I know that this government can not be born from the high pinnacle upon which it has been placed if the women of the country will do their duty.

I am not asking you to be patriotic but I am going to ask you to do your duty in this state and in the United States as citizens. A great responsibility rests upon the people of this country, and I hope you have the interest of our future at heart, when Americans are thinking in a hasty manner. I don't believe it has gone that far yet, but I know that the women of the country will rise as they should, and as they will in the protection of their home and their loved ones, and for posterity, that our government will stand for all time to come."

With his usual enthusiasm, Mr. Buchner gave a very inspiring talk dwelt particularly upon the good work the club is doing and can do in civic, social and educational matters as well as in the commercial world.

"You see the city from an entirely different angle from the opposite sex—and your opportunities for doing good as an organization are infinite. You are making progress. The world at this time needs the influence of good women who understand the existing conditions," he said.

DIXIE MAGNATES MEET

Salary Limit and "Seven Player" Rule to be Settled by Southern Association Heads.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 14. The "seven player" rule, which limits fixed at the last annual meeting of the league at $2,869, and the length of the 1920 season, in addition to the election of a president and a settlement of holiday names are expected to be the most important matters to be threshed out at the annual meeting of the Southern Association of baseball clubs, which will be in session here tomorrow and Friday.

Information in advance of the meetings indicates that an effort will be made either to increase the price of admission or to limit the number of times during a day for which it is used.

To have a greater number of "veteran" players on their rosters.

It is understood that a proposal will be made to lengthen the playing season to 154 games. Last season the schedule was limited to 140 games.

No announcement has been made as to whether John D. Martin of Memphis, who was elected president last year, will be opposed for re-election.

Board Letters Stolen.

PARIS, Dec. 14.—Louise Rostand, sister of the late Edmond Rostand, was robbed recently in a Paris railroad station of a trunk containing letters written by the poet to his family in his youth. It had been intended shortly to publish the letters.

To remind business men to keep their engagements, an alarm clock was being designed that will sound at a number of times during a day for which it is set.

WANT EX-KAISER ARRESTED

German War Committee Hears Proposed to Bring Him From Holland

BYLINE, Dec. 13.—Arrest of former Emperor William of Germany, if necessary, through the intermediary of Holland, was proposed yesterday before the parliamentary subcommittee investigating the question of war responsibility. A decision was postponed until further information with reference to possible happenings could be obtained.

With his usual enthusiasm, Mr. Buchner gave a very inspiring talk dwelt particularly upon the good work the club is doing and can do in civic, social and educational matters as well as in the commercial world.
